A Message from Administration

As we approach the midterm for Quad 3, we would encourage you to reach out to classroom teachers and school staff if you have any questions or there is any guidance you need to support students. Please continue to follow the direction of Public Health and stay safe during this time. The season of spring is upon us and as we journey through Lent toward our Easter Season, let's continue to remain people of hope, informed by our Faith.

Parent - Student - Teacher Interviews

Parent-Student-Teacher Interviews are taking place tomorrow between 2:00 and 4:00 in the afternoon and 5:00 and 7:00 in the evening. This will be an opportunity for you to speak with your son's or daughter's teachers about their progress thus far.

Due to COVID restrictions, interviews will be conducted virtually. Parents can request a telephone call, email consultation, or a video meeting using Microsoft Teams.

To book a meeting with teachers please go to the school website and click on Our Staff. All the teachers have an icon in front of their name. If you click on the icon it will take you to their personal page. In the right column you can select a time slot, fill in the important information, and then click the Book button. You will receive an email confirmation of your booking.

IEP Distribution

IEPs will be mailed on March 18, 2021. You should expect to receive them later that week.

Spring Break & Quad 3 Final Assessments

As previously communicated March Break has been postponed to the week of April 12–16 for all Ontario schools. As a result of the March Break being moved to April 12–16, we have made some adjustments to the Quad 3 and 4 calendars to support overall student achievement and wellbeing.

Final Assessment days have been moved to April 8 (Period 1) & April 9 (Period 2). These two days will be fully remote, synchronous assessment days. Following the April break, April 19 and 20 will continue to be Assessment and Evaluation (A&E) days for the purpose of credit recovery, rescue, and reporting. Further information will be provided by classroom teachers.

Quad 4 will begin on April 21 as a fully remote, synchronous day. Teachers will have the opportunity to virtually meet all students in their course(s), and to share course overviews and expectations. We will follow a remote learning schedule, check the school calendar for specific times.

Gathered to Become

By Mr. B. Rempel, Chaplain

Our board pastoral theme for the year is “Gathered to Become.” Becoming means transformation. The symbol for transformation is the butterfly. As the caterpillar transforms slowly into a butterfly, so we are slowly being transformed into the image of Christ. During semester 1, classes were invited to the Atrium to paint two large butterfly murals.

Butterfly murals painted by St. Benedict students.

The week of February 22 was butterfly week for our school. Classes once again made their way to the Atrium to create individual butterflies that had emerged from a cocoon. The image of the butterfly reminds us that transformation is an integral part of life. These creative symbols of transformation will remain in the Atrium as reminders that we are all in the process of being transformed.

Student Picture Day Is Coming Up!

The school will have picture day from Tuesday, March 23 through to the 26th. We will abide by our operational guidelines to ensure a safe process. Students will be called down by class and will need to be in uniform to take their picture. Students in phys ed, classes need to bring a uniform shirt to wear over their phys ed attire.

SET GOALS AND CELEBRATE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

What inspires you?

Set your goal for the day. Make a list and then celebrate achieving these goals, regardless of how big or small they may be. Remind yourself of why you are doing school work-for yourself and your future. Place a picture, quote or positive statement in front of you while you work as a constant reminder.

SET A ROUTINE & TAKE BREAKS

Research shows that if we can commit to 15 minutes on a particular task, we are more likely to stay focused for longer periods over time. Make a daily routine and include times for several breaks -to stretch, get a snack, or doing something that helps you to relax and refresh. However, make sure you come back to your school work afterwards.

SET TIME & SPACE & SOUND

Figure out what time you are most productive (morning? afternoon? evening?). Set a timer and try your best to get as much work done in that time. Change locations if you are feeling distracted where you are sitting. Put on headphones and listen to calming music or classical music which can help with focus as well

PRACTICE SELF-CARE

Message from Guidance

Guidance has great news for ALL students looking to submit their community service hours paper-free. We now have a fillable form available for submitting Community Service hours! Here is the link: <https://stbenedict.wcdsb.ca/student-services/guidance/community-service-hours/>

Complete the form and your hours will automatically be submitted and updated in the system. As a reminder, there were changes made regarding graduation requirements involving community service requirements for the 2020-2021 school year:

- graduates for 2020-2021 have a reduced requirement for 20 hours rather than the usual 40
- this is in recognition that gathering CSH is a challenge for students during the ongoing pandemic
- these hours can be generated in typical ways, also at the principal's discretion students can use hours:
 1. earned during the school day
 2. earned by performing household or community-based tasks – no max hours for duties performed at home, but this is at the principal's discretion
 3. 10 hours paid employment at principal's discretion
 4. flexibility and principal's discretion can be applied to international students
 5. co-op experience, either paid or unpaid, could also be considered at the principal's discretion

Please be sure to submit your hours ASAP.

DECA Provincials Results

Miss Grebinski, Mr. Szpiech, and Mrs. Ratz would like to congratulate all our DECA students who participated in the DECA Ontario Provincial Competition. The Ontario competition, which usually takes place over 2 days in downtown Toronto, was an entirely virtual event this year. In total, 32 St. Benedict students participated in the provincial competition which involved solving a business problem through an oral role play or preparing and presenting a business proposal.

Special congratulations to the following students for their high achievement in the competition:

- Aiman Ahmed, who placed in the top 6 of the Innovation Plan competition and qualified for the International DECA competition in April
- Rachel Anderson and Sari Nahhab, who placed in the top 20 for their oral case presentation in the Business Law and Ethics Team event
- Tolu Akinyemi, who placed in the top 20 for her oral case presentation in the Personal Financial Literacy event
- Lucija Dodig, Sarah Lee, and Cassie Wilkie for their top 20 finish in the Community Awareness Project
- Adam Romero and Colin Vrugteman, who finished in the top 20 of the Sports and Entertainment Operations Research event

Thank you to all DECA students for their involvement and learning throughout this DECA year. The DECA teachers would also like to thank our student executive, in particular, for their leadership and help this year: Andreas Diogenous, Lucija Dodig, Sarah Lee, Erica Miranda, Elora Schindler, Avery Stokes, Isbah Syed, and Colin Vrugteman. It was our pleasure to work with you this year.

To all DECA students, please join the Teams meeting on Thursday, March 18 at 11:15 am for a final wrap-up to our DECA season.

Programmers show Problem-solving Prowess in UW Competition

This year we had 15 of our computer programming students participate in the University of Waterloo's Canadian Computing Competition in February. Students were challenged with five programming problems in either a junior-level or senior-level contest, and had three hours to complete as many of them as they could.

For our grade 11 students, this was a test of skill after having just taken the grade 11 programming course (ICS 3U or C, taught in Python), while our grade 12 students had the advantage of having also taken the grade 12 Java course (ICS 4U or C).

The programs increase in difficulty as you go through the competition. A perfect run scores 15 points, and part marks are given. Students can choose to program in any one of several languages, including Python and Java which they learn at Bennie's.

Most students completed two or three of the problems. Special congratulations goes to Syed Murtaza

Shah who score a perfect score of 75 points, solving all five problems in the junior level competition!

A congratulations to all of our competitors: Andrew Babos, Daniel Dombrovsky, Cole Frost-Woodcock, Spiros Goros, Lalit Mada, Nicholas Melcher, Irtiza Mohammed, Musab Mufti, Syed Shahzain, Sydney Standing, Ekin Thoprakan, Issay Tieu, Mohammed Ibrahim Ullah, and Colin Vrugteman. For those students returning to Bennie's in September, we hope to take this competition and use it as a learning experience to prepare for next year! To our students who will be graduating this year we wish them all the best in their future academic pursuits!

Student Activities

Next week is

Spirit Week!!!

Semi-Formal is always a much awaited dance here at St. Benedict and an experience that students will miss this year. As COVID turned everything upside down, this Spirit Week will bring all aspects of past dances together in different forms throughout the week. Our Spirit Week is running from Monday, March 15 to Friday, March 19. On Tuesday and Thursday students are encouraged to wear neon shirts with uniform bottoms to throwback to our Neon Night dances. All tops must be bright colours, no blacks, greys, or whites allowed, students will be asked to change. We ask that students wear clothing in good taste to create a positive learning environment. More information about modest clothing can be found on the school website. Monday and Friday are spirit wear days, and Wednesday is cohort B's Civvies Day & St. Patrick's day... Green is encouraged!

Make sure to keep up to date with the SAC Instagram account for more Saints fun, as we have events running virtually too! This Friday, students may request clean songs to be added to a playlist shared with students and some may be played before the morning announcements. There will be a week-long recipe book compilation project for students to submit their favourite recipes from around the world to be featured in our Bennies recipe book. On Thursday, students are encouraged to post pictures from past semis with the hashtag #VirtualBenniesSemi2021 to be featured on the SAC Instagram story. Even though we cannot have a semi-formal dance this year we hope to strengthen our school community through this Spirit Week.
